A Partner for Change towards
Local Competitiveness and National Development

WHAT IS NABPLO?

NABPLO is the National Association of BPLO chiefs in the country.

WHEN AND WHERE WAS NABPLO FOUNDED?

NABPLO was organized in 1998 under the leadership of Las Pinas City BPLO Chief Boni Riguerra, the first NABPLO president.

NABPLO traces its roots from MEMBPLO, the Metro Manila Business Permits and Licensing Officers, Inc. Founded in 1989 by Quezon City BPLO Chief Pat Dumlao.

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF NABPLO?

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF NABPLO?

1. Help and assist member LGUs in revenue generation and business regulation so as to fulfil their mandates under the Local Government Code and other laws and regulations.
2. To serve as the forum or venue for the sharing of best practices and information relevant to its member LGUs

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF NABPLO?

3. To serve as the voice of its members in raising concerns and issues with National Government Agencies and with the Legislature.
4. To foster close and harmonious relationships between its members and business chambers, both local and national.
5. To position NABPLO as the National Government's dynamic partner in instituting reforms in governance as well as in fostering economic growth and countryside development.

Among all its goals, the most important goal of NABPLO is to assist and support its members in improving their revenue collection through the continuous sharing of ideas, strategies and practices.
